Minor: Athletic Coaching and Officiating
Program Code: M105

About This Minor . . .

There is lack of professionally trained coaches and officials in the United States. This minor combines courses in Sport Management and Kinesiology to prepare students to enter the fields of coaching and officiating. Courses will focus on overarching topics of coaching and officiating such as: the certification process, roster management, budget, legal issues, ethics, behavior management as well as the philosophical and psychological components associated with coaching and officiating. Students will gain theoretical knowledge along with practical experience, while working towards industry certification. This minor is best suited for Sport Management and education students, and will be open to all majors.

Advising and Graduation

Advising Process and DegreeWorks

Documentation on the pages related to this program is intended for informational purposes to help determine what courses and associated requirements are needed to earn a minor. Meeting with an academic advisor is essential in planning courses and developing a suggested course sequencing. It is ultimately the student's responsibility to understand and fulfill the requirements for their intended minor.

DegreeWorks is an online degree audit tool available in MAVzone. It is the official record used by the Registrar's Office to evaluate progress towards a minor. Students are responsible for reviewing their DegreeWorks audit on a regular basis and should discuss questions or concerns with their advisor or academic department head for the minor. Discrepancies in requirements should be reported to the Registrar's Office.

Graduation Process

A minor cannot be awarded by itself. It must be combined with a baccalaureate degree outside the major field of study. Students should follow the graduation process outlined for the baccalaureate degree and list their majors and minors on the "Intent to Graduate" form.

If a student's petition for graduation is denied, it will be their responsibility to consult the Registrar's Office regarding next steps.
