

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AND DISASTER PLANNING

Program Description

An Emergency Management and Disaster Planning certificate is an addition for students from a variety of majors interested in engaging in emergency and disaster related services in the public, non-profit and private sectors. The certificate provides the knowledge and skills necessary for students to engage in activities related to responding to, recovering from, preparing for and mitigating against disasters. The certificate also prepares students for completing the national certification program in emergency management.

Contact Information

Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences
Houston Hall
970.248.1696

Programs of Study Certificates

- Emergency Management and Disaster Planning \(Professional Certificate\)