

PLUMBING (PLMB)

PLMB 102 Plumbing Service and Repair4 Credits

Diagnosis and repair of common plumbing component and system problems. Includes faucet repair, water heater replacement/repair, drain cleaning, water closet repair, piping repairs, identifying sources of leaks, and evaluating problems for repair or replacement. Incorporates classroom and shop activities; the uses of plastic, copper, steel, cast iron pipe, and threaded fittings in the plumbing industry; job safety; and isometric drawing.

Terms Typically Offered: Spring.

PLMB 104 International Plumbing Code4 Credits

Assistance for plumbers working in jurisdictions where the International Plumbing Code (IPC) has been adopted. This course will review the IPC and help the plumber apply the requirements of this code to the installation of plumbing systems.

Terms Typically Offered: Spring.