

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

---

All new degree-seeking first-time freshmen are required to participate in new student registration to receive their first semester courses. Information regarding new student registration will be emailed to students upon notification of acceptance and also can be found on the Colorado Mesa University Orientation website.

Students must be admitted prior to starting the new student registration process. For more information, call 970.248.1875.