Welcome Week is an opening week program for first time and returning students hosted by our Programming Activities Council (PAC). Activities begin the Sunday before school starts and carry on throughout the first week of classes.

New students to Colorado Mesa University are strongly encouraged to participate in the programs offered in order to meet fellow classmates and learn about the University's programs and facilities. Visit the Welcome Week website for schedules and information.